Preface

This parallel world, in the early nineteen hundreds, is of the usual and the not so usual. By usual, gravity exists and people ride wagons and live in houses; by not so usual, we'll find odd sounds, green lights, and drifting shapes. Also, this is a work of fiction, so if you recognize someone, be assured it's not them. Let imagination be the closest shore, and keeping this in mind, our story begins.
